Classification Plan: The classes of positions described in the official classification and salary schedules, entitled "Salary Schedule (year), Department of Human Resources" and "Salary Schedule for Civil Service Employees, Cincinnati Public Schools", as published with such modifications as may be made thereto from time to time in accordance with these rules, shall constitute the official classification plan for all positions in the service of the City of Cincinnati and the Cincinnati Public Schools, respectively (with the exception of teaching, educational, research and library positions). No person shall be employed or regularly assigned to work under any classification not appropriate to the duties to be performed. The official classification and salary schedules as hereby made a part of these rules.

The official copy of such specifications shall include the date of approval and the signature or initials of the Secretary or any employee authorized by Commission to make such endorsement. Approval of all amendments to the specifications adopted under these rules shall be similarly endorsed. The official class specification shall be open to the public at all times during business hours.

Section 3. Class Specifications Interpreted: The specifications of classes of positions in the classification plan are hereby declared to have the following force and effect:

A. They are descriptive and explanatory and are not restrictive. The use of a particular expression or illustration as to duties, qualifications, or other attributes shall not exclude others not mentioned if such others are similar in kind or quality, nor to limit the power of appointing authorities to modify or alter the detailed tasks involved in the duties of any position. When a substantial change of duties outside the current classification is made, except for a temporary period or by the addition of duties that are incidental to the main employment, such change shall be reported to the Commission within 60 days with a view to a possible reclassification of the position.

B. In determining the allocation of a given position the specifications shall be considered as a whole. Consideration shall be given to the general duties and responsibilities, the examples of duties cited, the minimum entrance qualifications, and relationships to other classes as affording an inclusive picture of the employment the class is intended to embrace.

Section 4. Distribution of Positions to Classes: Upon recommendation of the Secretary each position in the civil service (with the exception of teaching, educational, research and library positions) shall be distributed to the appropriate class by the Civil Service Commission. The distribution of any position to its appropriate class shall involve the adoption of the class title for all positions in the class in payroll records, in requests to the Civil Service Commission for the certification of eligibles, and in all similar employment processes and documents.

Section 5. Classification of New Positions: Whenever a new position is to be established, the appointing authority or principal executive officer shall report such fact to the Civil Service Commission and transmit a comprehensive description of the duties. The Commission shall thereupon investigate the actual or suggested duties and qualification requirements and allocate the position to its appropriate class in accordance with the classification plan.

Section 6. Reclassification of Positions and Incumbents: Each appointing authority is responsible for maintaining the integrity of the classification plan by assigning employees duties which are appropriate for their class in accordance with these rules and the applicable class specification. No supervisor may knowingly assign substantial higher level duties except for a temporary promotion or temporary transfer situation.

When the duties and responsibilities of existing positions are changed outside of the current classification, the appointing authority or principal executive officer shall report such fact to the Commission within 60 days of such changes, and transmit to the Commission a full statement of the circumstances, a description of the duties and applicable conditions of employment, if any; copies of such notices shall be provided for the affected employee(s). Requests for audits of positions may be initiated by the Commission, the Civil Service Secretary, an appointing authority or principal executive officer, or an employee working in the position.

The Commission staff shall, after investigation and review of job duties, work samples and/or any other appropriate documents or evidence, allocate or reallocate every position to the appropriate class. The appointing authority, principal executive officers and employees concerned shall have the opportunity to comment to Commission on the reclassification study report prior to Commission's approval.

I. When a position is reclassified to a higher or different classification, several resolutions are available:

- A. The agency may request a certified eligible list for the higher classification, and if the incumbent falls within appointing range, the incumbent will be promoted into the higher position. If the position is to be filled through promotion by means other than a promotional list as approved by Commission, and the incumbent is deemed eligible for the promotion, the incumbent will be promoted into the higher position.
- B. If the incumbent is promoted from an existing list, the promotion shall be effective the beginning of the pay period in which the study is approved by Commission. If the incumbent is promoted after a list is created, or by any other method approved by Commission, the promotion shall be effective following normal rules of promotion.
- C. Incumbents holding permanent status in a position reclassified to a different classification with the same top pay step, as approved by the Commission, may be reclassified to the different classification if they meet the qualifications and all rules for transfers are followed.

- D. If the agency determines not to fill the position at the classification approved by commission, management may remove from the employee the higher level and/or non-conforming duties as identified as a result of the class study and ensure that the employee's assigned duties are within the employee's classification.
- E. If the agency determines to fill the position at the classification approved by Commission and an incumbent is not eligible for the higher level classification, the employee shall be reassigned to a position in his proper classification. If such a position is not available, see Section C above.

II. When a position is reclassified to a classification having a lower salary range two resolutions are available:

- A. Incumbents holding permanent status in a position reclassified to a classification having a lower salary range may be reassigned to a vacant position in their current classification.
- B. If the agency determines not to fill the position at the classification approved by Commission, management may add appropriate duties in order to ensure that the employee's assigned duties are within the employee's classification. These new job assignments must be approved by Commission.

Section 7. Amendment of the Classification Plan: The Commission, and/or the Civil Service Secretary or designee, as deemed necessary and after conference with the appointing authorities and principal executive officers involved, may establish new classes, abolish, merge or divide existing classes and amend the class specifications to meet changing conditions.

Section 8. Dual Classifications (applicable only to the Board of Education): Where it is determined by the appointing authority, with the approval of the Commission, that it is frequently necessary for an employee to perform duties outside of his classification, such employee may be appointed to a class involving such duties and retain his original classification. Competitive examination shall be the means of selection for dual class if the position is of a higher level than the original classification, except as the Commission shall otherwise determine. Any subsequent full time vacancy in the higher classification shall be filled by the employee holding a dual classification with the highest seniority in that class and in the same employing unit. No employee may be made full time in any higher class unless his last service rating was at least "satisfactory".

Eligible Lists

Section 1. Posting of Lists: From the results of each examination, the Commission shall prepare and keep open for public inspection an eligible list of persons who achieve the minimum passing score or better on the examination and are otherwise eligible. These persons shall be notified and shall be placed on the eligible list in the order of their relative grades. Whenever it becomes necessary to re-administer an examination in order to obtain additional eligibles, the Commission may consolidate existing lists for the same class by rearranging the eligible names on the list according to their grades. Each person whose name appears on the existing list which is to be merged with a new list shall have an opportunity to compete in the second examination, provided he meets the qualifications. Standing on the eligible list then shall be determined by the grade on the subsequent examination. Those eligibles who do not take the second examination will remain on the list according to their grade on the earlier exam and will be removed from the list when the expiration date for the first list is reached.

Section 2. Duration of Eligible Lists: The term of eligibility of each list shall be fixed by the Commission at not less than one year nor more than two years.

Section 3. Disqualification of Eligibles and Removal from List: After the creation of an eligible list, if the Commission has reason to believe that any person whose name appears on a list is disqualified for appointment such person shall be notified and given an opportunity to submit a written explanation of the circumstances to the Civil Service Commission and/or request to be heard. If such person fails to appear for a hearing when scheduled, or fails to provide an explanation satisfactory to the Commission, his name shall be removed from the appropriate list. The following are cause for disqualification:

The name may be reinstated on the eligible list only by a written satisfactory explanation of the circumstances submitted to and approved by the Commission.

Section 4. Change of Address: Each person on an eligible list shall file with the Commission written notice of any change of address

Section 5. Revocation of List: An eligible list may be revoked and another examination ordered only when in the judgment of the Commission such action is deemed advisable due to errors, fraud or obviously inappropriate standards prescribed in connection with any examination. All competitors in the first examination shall be given opportunity to compete and a new eligible list shall be established. No eligible list shall be revoked except upon written notice to all persons whose standing may be affected. The Commission must take action on the reasons for such alteration or revocation and an entry of the action must be made in the minutes of the Commission.

Section 6. Temporary Appointments: A temporary employee who passes an examination for a vacant position in the class in which he is serving as a temporary employee at the time of the examination, and the vacant position is in the employing unit in which he is serving at the time of the examination, shall be placed by the Secretary on a preferred eligible list. This preferred eligible list must be exhausted before any other eligible list is used. No temporary employee shall, under this section, be appointed from said preferred eligible list to a vacant position in any employing unit that is not the unit in which he is serving at the time of the examination or to a classification that is not the class in which he is serving at the time of the examination.

Section 7. Eligible Lists Resulting from an Open and Promotional Examination: An examination may be given both as open and promotional, for example when an insufficient number of eligibles are available for a full certification. The list of competitors passing the promotional examination shall be prepared separately from the list of competitors passing the open examination. The promotional eligible list shall be used first. When there is an insufficient number of competitors on the list to constitute full certification, the Secretary may authorize the certification of competitors from both the promotional and open eligible lists to constitute a full certification.

Appointment to the Classified Service

Section 1. Certification and Appointment Process: Immediately upon receipt of a written request for certification, the Commission shall certify to the principal appointive officer in which a position in the classified service is to be filled, the names, addresses, race, sex, information and rank of the ten persons standing highest on the eligible list for the class or grade to which the position belongs; provided that the Commission may certify less than ten names if ten names are not available. When less than ten names are certified to a principal appointive officer, appointment from that list shall not be mandatory, and certification from a related list or a new examination may be secured.

A position must be filled by appointment of one of the ten persons certified. If more than one position is to be filled, the Commission may certify a group of names from the eligible list and the appointing authority shall appoint in the following manner:

Beginning at the top of the list, each time a selection is made it must be from one of the first ten candidates remaining on the list who is willing and able to accept consideration for the position. If a candidate is not interested in the position or is unable to accept consideration for the position, an additional candidate may be certified at the department's request. If no list for the position exists, names may be certified from a related list providing the qualifications are similar. If more than one vacancy is to be filled, the number of names to be certified shall be determined by the current number of vacancies.

A person certified from an eligible list more than four times to the same employing unit for the same or similar position may be removed from further consideration. A temporary appointment shall not be counted as one such certification.

A. Filling permanent positions in the Unskilled Laborer classification: When an employing unit which employs Municipal Worker has a permanent vacancy in a class in which Unskilled Laborer are employed, this permanent vacancy shall be filled from among the three Municipal Workers of that employing unit with the highest seniority. When an employing unit has a permanent vacancy and does not employ Municipal Workers in the classification, the ten Municipal Workers with the highest seniority from employing units where Municipal Workers are employed will be certified for consideration.

B. Cancellation of Certification: If at any time after eligibles have been certified by the Commission, the appointing authority decides not to fill the vacancy or decides to fill the vacancy by other methods approved by the Commission, the certification shall be canceled.

C. Employment Interview and Result: Any appointing authority or his authorized representative shall be privileged to examine the application and test score(s) of applicants prior to the interview, should this be desired in determining the relative fitness of persons under consideration for appointment.

D. Appointment Date: The date one becomes a classified employee is determined by the agency and approved by the appointing authority. All applicable benefits and service credit will be counted from the pay period of the appointment date that must be after the date signed by the appointing authority.

E. Appointments in Uniformed Fire and Police Services Resulting from Promotion: Appointments in a promoted rank within the Fire Division shall be made within ten days following certification. Appointments in a promoted rank within the Police Division shall be made within thirty days following certification.

Section 3. Under special circumstances the following appointments may be made:

A. Exceptional Appointments: In case of a vacancy in a position in the classified service where peculiar and exceptional qualifications of a scientific, managerial, professional or educational character are required, and upon satisfactory evidence that for specified reasons competition in such special case is impracticable and that the position can be best filled by a selection of some designated person of high and recognized attainments in such qualities, the Commission may suspend the provisions of the statute requiring competition, but no suspension shall be general in application, and all such cases of suspension shall be recorded in the minutes of the Commission with the reason stated.

B. Temporary Appointments: Use of temporary appointments shall be in accordance with Sections 124.30, 124.26 and 124.271 of the Ohio Revised Code.

Temporary Appointments may be made when there is urgent need to fill a position and Civil Service is unable to certify a list of eligible persons.

Temporary appointments may not continue longer than 120 days; except if the temporary appointment is due to sickness, disability, or other approved leave of absence of a regular employee, the temporary appointment may continue as long as the leave.

Temporary appointments shall not be made successively.

An employee who serves in a temporary appointment for a period of six months of continuous service and who demonstrates merit and fitness for the position shall become a permanent appointee in the classified service at the end of the six months.

Section 4. Any permanent employee who was separated in good standing may be:

A. Reinstated within one year from the date of such separation to a vacancy in the same or similar classification in the same department, at the request of the department and with the approval of the Commission, provided there is no existing promotional eligible list or other preferred list for the classification, and there are no employees who have been laid off and whose names appear on a layoff list for the class. This section is applicable unless superseded by a collective bargaining agreement.

If such separation was due to injury or physical disability, such person shall be reinstated to the same or similar classification he held at the time of his separation, within thirty days after written application for reinstatement and after passing a physical examination made by the City Physician or his designee, showing that he has recovered from such disability and can perform the full range of duties, provided further that such application for reinstatement be filed within two years from the date of separation, and further provided that such application shall not be filed after the date of service eligibility retirement. In the case of requested reinstatements of sworn employees of the Police and Fire Divisions, a copy of the reinstatement request shall be furnished to the Fire Chief or Police Chief as appropriate. (Sworn employees of the Police and Fire Divisions may not be reinstated above the rank of Police Officer and Fire Fighter, and must pass a physical examination disclosing that the person is physically fit to perform the duties of the office of Police Officer or Fire Fighter [Ohio Revised Code Section 124. 50]).

B. Restored to an appropriate eligible list with the approval of the Commission within a period of one year from the date of separation. The employee will be placed on the eligible list in accordance with the grade he received if the list from which he was appointed is still in effect. In the case that the eligible list from which he was appointed has expired, or if an employee requesting to be restored to an eligible list for a classification in which they previously served did not take an examination, the employee will be placed at the bottom of the appropriate eligible list.

Section 5. Transfer of Unclassified Employees: Whenever, by reason of reorganization of one or more departments, divisions or bureaus of the city service, an employee in the unclassified service is not needed or his position is abolished in such unclassified service, the employee, with the approval of the City Manager or other chief appointing authority and the Civil Service Commission, may be transferred to a vacant position with similar duties in the classified service in the same or other departments, divisions or bureaus. Only employees who have occupied such unclassified service positions for two or more years may be transferred to the classified service. No such transfer shall be made to a position occupied by a regularly appointed employee in the classified service or to a position for which an employee is on a preferred eligible list by reason of layoff or reclassification.

Section 6. Reassignment within a Given Classification. Nothing herein shall be construed to interfere with the right of the City Manager or other appointing authorities to assign or reassign employees within a given classification among the various departments under their control as deemed in the best interest of the service.

Probation

Section 1. Probationary Period: All classified appointments, including temporary appointments, shall be for a probationary period, fixed by the Commission in accordance with Chapter 124 of the Ohio Revised Code. Length of probationary periods for City of Cincinnati classifications is contained in the official classification and salary schedule entitled "Salary Schedule (year), Department of Human Resources," which is hereby made part of these rules. No final appointment or promotion shall be deemed made until the appointee has satisfactorily served his probationary period. In determining the probationary period of a Board of Education seasonal or school year employee, only periods when such employee is on work status shall be counted.

If a probationary employee is absent because of illness for a substantial portion of his probationary period, the Commission may extend his probationary period by the number of working days not exceeding the length of time he was absent.

Section 2. Probationary Period for Temporary Appointments: Service performed as a temporary appointee shall be included in the probationary period.

The report shall indicate whether the performance of the employee is satisfactory. If a probationary employee is to be separated from employment prior to completion of his probationary period a performance report must be made and included in the separation papers. The performance report shall state the reason for such separation.

Section 5. Ineligibility Due to Probationary Failure: An employee failing to qualify in his probationary period shall be ineligible for any civil service examination for a period of one year, unless, in the judgment of the Civil Service Secretary, the cause of his removal will not affect his usefulness in some other type of employment.

Section 6. Demotion to a Former Classification Resulting from Failure of Probation:

A. An employee promoted from the same employing unit who fails to qualify on his probationary period shall be reinstated to the same or similar classification from which he was promoted in the same employing unit.

An employee not so reinstated may be placed on a city- wide preferential eligible list for the same or similar classification from which he was promoted, with the consent of the Commission, for a period of one year. An employee on such a list shall have preferential reemployment status in the classification from which the employee was originally promoted or in any lesser-paying classification deemed appropriate by the Commission. Reemployment in a lesser classification shall not be cause to remove the employee from the preferential list for the classification from which the employee was originally promoted.

C. An employee who fails probation while serving in a temporary appointment shall be restored to a position in the classification from which he was temporarily appointed.
